

Statement of Categories of Documents that are held by the Reserve Bank or under its Control

1. Various policy documents.
2. Circulars, instructions issued to banks/FIs, etc.
3. Correspondence with the members of the public, government, banks/FIs, including regulatory returns received.
4. Inspection reports.
5. Ledgers, registers, etc.
6. Internal policy statements, administrative instructions, records, personnel files, interdepartmental correspondence, etc.
7. Record of monetary/financial indicators such as bank rate, exchange rates, etc.
8. Publications brought out by the Bank.
9. Agenda, minutes, etc., of the meetings of Central Board, Local Board, various committees, etc.
10. Files relating to cases filed by and against the Bank in various Courts, etc.
11. Records relating to the establishment and properties held by the Bank.

It may be mentioned that the contents of many of the records/documents listed above are confidential in nature and are exempt from disclosure in terms of the Right to Information Act, 2005.