Issue of ₹1000 banknotes with incorporation of Rupee symbol (₹) and inset letter 'L' with numerals in ascending size in number panels

The Reserve Bank of India will shortly issue ₹1000 denomination Banknotes in the Mahatma Gandhi Series-2005, incorporating "₹" symbol on the obverse and the reverse, with inset letter 'L' in both the numbering panels, bearing the signature of Dr. Raghuram G.Rajan, Governor, Reserve Bank of India, and the year of printing '2015' printed on the reverse of the Banknote.

The design of these notes to be issued now is similar in all respects to the ₹1000 Banknotes in Mahatma Gandhi Series-2005 issued earlier, provided that the numerals in both the number panels will be in the ascending size from left to right while the first three alpha-numeric characters (prefix) will remain constant in size.

Such notes with the numerals in the ascending size in the numbering panels have already been put into circulation for ₹100 and ₹500 denominations.

All the Banknotes in the denomination of ₹1000 issued by the Bank in the past will continue to be legal tender.
